Jonah 3

The Big Idea: I have not _____ God's _____ and _____

The Bible Pathway: The _____ > Original _____ > _____

Observations: Jonah > Israel

God is looking for people who _____

God's love and mercy are _____ than we can _____

What are your observations?

Application: Jonah > Israel > Us

_____ have not out-sinned God's love or mercy.

Looking through the Revelation 2 lens:

REMEMBER - What does this say about who God is?

Pray to align your view of God with who He is, not who you want Him to be.

REPENT & REDO - How then will we respond?

For those who have not committed to following Jesus...turn and run to Him!

For those who have life in Christ...the good news of Jesus really is for _____!

Who is your 'they'? Start to pray for the 'they' in your world!

Putting The Bible Into Practice:

Compare & note observations in Jonah 1:1-3 & 3:1-3. Describe times God has given you a second chance to obey the same command. What do you observe in Jonah 3:4-10? What did believing God & repenting look like for the Ninevites? What should it look like for us?

Read Romans 5:6-10. Who did Jesus die for? What was their spiritual condition? Do you believe you have out-sinned God's love or mercy? Why or why not? Do you believe God longs to show love to the 'they' in your life? Who are your 'they'? Will you align with God & be a messenger to them (pray, show love, share your story, share the Gospel)?

What is God calling you to REMEMBER? How is God calling you to REPENT or REDO?

Challenge:

Watch the video at 2RC.tv/Jonah & read Jonah 3. Write your observations about God.
