

PSALM 62

Big Idea: God I choose to _____ you!

God build my trust as I wait! Psalm 62:1-2, 5-8

God where do I need to trust you? Psalm 62:3-4, 9-10

God you are all that power, love & justice are! Psalm 62:11-12

Next Steps:

- Pray out loud this week by myself to step into a place of discomfort in prayer.
• Pray Psalm 62 each day this week focusing on Jesus being my only hope.
• Confess that I look to assert myself instead of placing my hope in Jesus.
• Holy Spirit show me: _____

LIVE IT OUT

Putting The Bible Into Practice:

Are you by nature active or passive? What do you find most difficult about waiting? What is the difference between inactive waiting & actively waiting in prayer? What do you find yourself doing instead of actively waiting in prayer?

Read 1 Samuel 24. What do you observe about waiting for God's timing? Is there a situation in your life right now where you need to actively wait in prayer instead of taking action?

Read Psalm 62. How can declaring what is true about God build your trust in Him? How has past experience shown that God can be trusted or where have you been left disappointed? What is God's part as we wait & what is ours?

Challenge:

Pray Psalm 62 each morning this week inviting the Holy Spirit to guide each encounter.
