

Key Questions...

1. Are we making it safe for people to take next steps in prayer regardless of where they are on their prayer journey?
2. How much time are we actually spending praying for each other?
3. Do we break into smaller groups for prayer (men's, women's, 3's)?
4. Are we creating space to listen for God's direction and input before we pray?
5. Are we celebrating answers to prayer?
