John 3:13-14

Big Idea: The power of the Holy Spirit is available to me.

Experiencing the Holy Spirit’s power begins with recognizing my “thirst.” (v. 13)

Experiencing the Holy Spirit’s power requires expectation. (v. 14a)

The power of the Holy Spirit overflows into life. (v. 14b)

Next Steps:

- Accept the new life only Jesus gives!
- Where am I experiencing the Holy Spirit but not counting it?
- What area am I keeping from the Holy Spirit?
- How can I step more fully into experiencing the Holy Spirit’s power?
- Jesus, please show me how you want me to respond:

LIVE IT OUT

Putting The Bible Into Practice:

Read John 4:13-14, 7:37-39. Describe the 'soul thirst' that every person experiences? How do people try to quench this thirst apart from God? What results? What leads people to 'recognize' their thirst for the Holy Spirit? Do you expect the Spirit to flow in your life?

Describe ways you have experienced the Holy Spirit filling, flowing, empowering, or guiding you? What does that look like, feel like, lead to? Describe the difference between responding with obedience to the Spirit & 'quenching or grieving' the Spirit.

Read Ephesians 5:13-6:18. How does being 'filled with the Spirit' flow into everyday life & relationships? What practices or habits open the floodgates for the Spirit in your life?

Challenge:

Seek, invite, and expect the Holy Spirit to fill & overflow in your life! Meditate on John 7:38.
