A HOPE-FILLED LIFE

John 6:1-21

Big Idea: Life with Jesus is a life of abundant hope.

Jesus gives hope to those with eyes to see.

We experience hope when we live with a supernatural mindset.

We experience hope when we give God our everything.

We experience hope when life gets disorienting.

Next Steps:

- Where are areas you have been seeking to find your hope outside of Christ? Take those and submit them to Christ.
- What is something that God has called you to do that you feel inadequate to do?
- Remember times in life where Jesus has spoken into your anxieties & disorientations. How can remembering those times help you when you face anxieties again?
- Holy Spirit, how do you want me to respond?

LIVE IT OUT

Putting The Bible Into Practice:

Read John 6:1-15. Describe a time you were like Phillip with no hope beyond what could be done in the natural. Describe a time you, like Andrew, started with a tiny bit of hope but it faded fast. Where are you now putting hope in things outside of Jesus? Why?

Where do you now feel called to do something too big for you to accomplish? What is the lunchable (loaves & fishes) that Jesus wants you to offer Him, so He can multiply it?

Read John 6:16-21. What do we learn about Jesus? What past storms has Jesus met you in? What storm are you inviting Him into now? What stands out in 1 Samuel 17:31-54? How does our personal history of seeing God bring hope in storms prepare us for what's next?

Challenge:

Memorize Romans 15:13. Live with hope knowing Jesus reigns over all & is with you!
