

WE > ME
2 Corinthians 5:11-6:2

Big Idea: Our new life in Christ compels us to make the Gospel real.

1. The time for new life is today.
2. We've been given life so we can give it to others.
3. We were made to make the Gospel real.

I NEED MORE INFO ABOUT

Monday | Read 2 Corinthians 5:11 | The truth about God’s character

Believers who “fear the Lord” persuade others to do the same. What does it look like for you to “fear” God? How could that persuade others to do the same? How could a church body together show reverence for God and what impact could that make? Ask God, “How do WE display your character for the world to see?”

Tuesday | Read 2 Corinthians 5:12-17 | The truth about man’s sinfulness

People tend to judge others by outward appearance rather than the heart. What are some outward things you use to evaluate others? How does this sinful attitude put a wall between believers and unbelievers? How are we instructed in v. 17 to perceive other believers? Ask God, “How can the truth of sin be made real to a world that minimizes it?”

Wednesday | Read 2 Corinthians 5:18-21 | The truth about Jesus’s sufficiency

Only through Jesus is man reconciled to God. What does it look like to live with assurance that trespasses will not be counted against you? How do you treat others differently in light of Jesus’ forgiveness of them? Ask God, “How can WE make Jesus’ forgiveness more real to others?”

Thursday | Read 2 Corinthians 5:20 | The truth about responding in faith

Christ compels us to not live for self but for others. What does it mean to be an ambassador for Christ? In what ways do you represent him to others at your work, when facing illness, or when spending money? How is serving as an ambassador more effective with others than on your own? Ask God, “How can WE make dying to self and living for you more real to those watching?”

Friday | Read 2 Corinthians 6:1-2 | The truth about eternal life

Eternal life starts today!! Today is the day Isaiah spoke about in his prophecy. What are the two phrases given that describe this present age? Say them in your own words. How could it be possible that one would receive the grace of God in vain? Why does being together with other believers make it less likely? Read 1 Peter 3:15 and Matt 5:16 and ask God, “How can the hope WE have be made more real in our words and actions?”
