LIVE IT OUT TOGETHER | STUDY • DISCUSS • APPLY

Monday | Read Luke 24:13-17

Encounters with Jesus are based in truth. Jesus took the time to connect the Scriptures for these two followers. How have you experienced Jesus speaking to you through Scripture? What makes it difficult to see Jesus at work today? Read Matthew 7:7 and ask God, "Where have you been in my midst and I didn't perceive you? Open my eyes to see you at work."

Tuesday | Read Luke 24:13-24

As the two men were talking along the road, what types of emotions do you think they experienced? Where have you experienced disappointment in the way God worked? Why are both the death and resurrection of Jesus important parts of the Gospel story? Ask God, "Where is disappointment keeping me from telling of the blessings I have in you?"

Wednesday | Read Isaiah 53:9-11, Exodus 12:1-13

How does this story encourage your Word-dependence? How might Jesus have used these passages to explain his death and resurrection? Jesus waited to reveal his identity until after he had explained the Scriptures. Have you felt like Jesus was making you wait? How can the Scriptures encourage you during those times? Ask God, "What do you want to teach me in your word today? Who can I tell?"

Thursday | Read Luke 24:13-35

When were the disciples' eyes opened to Jesus' identity? Why is the "breaking of bread" significant in this story? How is communion a simple picture of the Gospel message? How is it a motivation to serve people both inside the family of faith and those who aren't yet? Ask God, "How can I share your simple story? Who can I practice with today?"

Friday | Read Luke 24:13-35

Encounters with Jesus inspire us to tell others. When Jesus leaves, what immediate action did these followers take? How has God's work in the lives of other followers strengthened you? Ask God, "How can my experience with you be an encouragement to others?" Then tell the story.
