Love Serves
"Gifted to Serve"
Romans 12:3-8

Big Idea: God has given me unique gifts to use in everyday life.

Using my gifts requires _____.

Using my gifts with _____ brings _____.

Using my gifts shows my _____.

Next Steps:

- What are my gifts?
- Ask God, "Where can I use my gifts today?"
- Celebrate our unity by taking communion together.

LIVE IT OUT TOGETHER | STUDY • DISCUSS • APPLY

Monday | Read Romans 12:1-8

What do you think of when you hear the word "church"? How does an understanding of the church as a building get in your way? How does this contrast to the worship described in Romans 12:1-8? Ask God, "What does a living sacrifice look like in my life today?"

Tuesday | Read Romans 12:1-8

How has the idea of "humility" become misunderstood? What truth about our gifts should keep us thinking soberly about ourselves and others? How can gifts sometimes puff you up or a lack of gifts keep you sidelined? Ask God, "Where am I out of alignment in my thinking?"

Wednesday | Read Romans 12:1-8

Using your gifts brings unity within the Christian community. How does this truth impact how you use your gifts? Where are you making yourself available to others? Ask God, "How have you gifted those around me? What can I do to encourage them?"

Thursday | Read Romans 12:1-8

What specific gifts are listed that explain being a "living sacrifice?" Read 1 Cor. 12:1-12. Where have you seen any of these gifts used? What do you think your gifts might be? How does using your gifts demonstrate your faith? Ask God, "Where are you calling me to use my gifts and what attitude listed in this passage do I need to apply to my acts of service?"

Friday | Read Romans 12:1-8

We are urged to respond to God's grace by fully using the gifts He has given. How is this different from how the world thinks? How does serving cause your thinking to be transformed to be more in line with Jesus? Ask God, "What changes are you leading me to make because of these verses?"
