

AUGUST 13/14 | LISTEN! | MARK HOFFMAN

Deuteronomy 6:4-9
Loving Jesus The Most

The Big Idea: Following Jesus means we learn to love Jesus most.

We are expected to love Jesus most.

Jesus connects loving God with loving others.

Love is learned over time.

Next Steps:

- 1. Make a choice to be a student of Jesus.
- 2. Ask yourself this question - "Do I love Jesus 'most'?"
- 3. Let's pray together this week:
"Jesus, I love you most, how do I live like that right now?"

LIVE IT OUT TOGETHER | STUDY • DISCUSS • APPLY

(Use these questions in the normal rhythm of life - meal time, drive time, bed time, morning time)

Monday | Read Deuteronomy 6:5

What word is repeated 3 times in this verse? Why is that important? What does it mean to love Jesus with ALL of yourself? Which area; heart, soul, mind or strength is it hardest to be ALL in for Jesus? Pray: "Jesus I love you most. Help me love you with ALL of me."

Tuesday | Read John 14:15-31

Love is more than a private feeling, but is a pledge of action. How does Jesus connect love and obedience? What is the difference between saying you love someone and showing that you love them? Ask God, "What command could I obey today to demonstrate my love for you? Pray: "Jesus I love you most. Help me show it by obedience."

Wednesday | Read Deuteronomy 6:6 & Matt 22:37-39

What is the connection between loving God and loving others? Of the ten commandments, (Deuteronomy 5) which are directed toward loving God and which are directed toward loving others? Ask God, "Who can I be more loving toward in an effort to show my love for you?" Pray: "Jesus, I love you most, help me love who you love."

Thursday | Read Deuteronomy 6:7-9

What principles about sharing God's word with others can you draw from these verses? How can love for God be "taught" by the Bible and also "caught" by the example of Christians? Ask God, "When is it most natural for me to talk about you?" Pray: "Jesus, I love you most. Help me speak of you more."

Friday | Read 1 John 4:10-13

How did God demonstrate His love for us? What makes it possible for us to love God and love others? Ask God, "How can I know your love abides in my heart?" Pray: "Jesus, I love you most. Help me remember you loved me first."
