

The Return of the King
Revelation 19:6-20

Big Idea: Jesus' victory motivates me to live faithfully today.

Worship is our response to Jesus' assured victory.

King Jesus will ultimately do what is right.

The King's coming judgement drives me to live for eternity.

Next Steps:

1. Bow your knees to Jesus as King.
2. "Live It Out"
3. Memorize and recite this daily: "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns." (Rev. 19:6)

Revelation Glossary:

The bride - the church, the people of God
The prostitute - the idolatrous and rebellious against God
"many diadems" - a symbol of Jesus' absolute authority
"a white horse" - an image of a conquering king
"eyes are like a flame of fire" - Jesus is absolutely pure, seeing all things and judges perfectly
"thousand years" - an apocalyptic number most likely referring to a long period of time, referred to as the millennium

PRAYER REQUESTS

I PRAYED TO RECEIVE CHRIST TODAY!

I'M INTERESTED IN BEING BAPTIZED!

LIVE IT OUT TOGETHER | STUDY • DISCUSS • APPLY

Monday | Read Revelation 19:6-10

How is a wedding celebration a good picture of the gospel? What about this moves you to worship Jesus? Where has God provided for you an opportunity to join in the work He is doing? How does this lead you to worship? Ask God, "How can my worship show the joy of celebrating face-to-face with you?"

Tuesday | Read Revelation 19:11-16 & Hebrews 4:12-13

List the images and attributes of Jesus you see. Which stands out to you? Why is it significant that a sharp sword is coming out of his mouth? Jesus is the Living Word of God. How do both the written Word and the living Word work together in your life? Ask God, "What do you want to teach me?" Write it down.

Wednesday | Read Revelation 19:17-21

What emotions do you experience reading this description of judgment? In what ways do people think they can escape the judgment of God and absolve themselves from sin? How is it encouraging to know there is impending judgment for God's enemies? Ask God, "Where are you asking me to trust your judgment instead of my own?"

Thursday | Read Revelation 20:1-10

Jesus wins the battle before it begins. How does that change the way you perceive your spiritual battles? How does it motivate you today, to know that God's people will be raised from the dead to reign with King Jesus? Ask God, "Where are you asking me to change perspective, keeping eternity in mind?"

Friday | Read Revelation 20:11-15 & Matthew 25:31-46

The "book of life" represents all those who belong to Jesus. What motivates you more - the joys of eternal life or the escape from condemnation? Why? Ask God, "What do I need to take courage in, knowing that my end is secure in you?"
