Monday | Read Ephesians 4:25-5:2

My identity demands I live out love. What are positive motivations that prompt you to live the life described here? What are some negative motivations? Sign up for Serve Saturday on 4/1/23, no joke! 2rc.tv/ServeSaturday. Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to remember your love for me?"

Tuesday | Focus on Ephesians 4:25-32

Living out love is based on a truth-telling lifestyle and embracing an "old/new" lifestyle. What does it mean to encourage another person with the truth? What truths has Paul given to encourage us? What do you see you need to put off and put on? Why is it essential that this is grounded in the love Jesus has for you? Ask Jesus, "Who is someone I need to love today?"

Wednesday | Listen to Colossians

I belong to God, so I can embrace an "old for new" lifestyle. As you listen, open your Bible and pay attention to Col.3:1-17. Looking at the lifestyle described here and in Ephesians 4, what do you notice about the work God has already done in your heart? Worship him for that! What in these passages challenges you the most? Ask Jesus, "Who are you asking me to love today?"

Thursday | Watch the Bible Project videos on Spiritual Beings | Episode 4

Watch episode 4. How does understanding the nature of spiritual beings impact how you view what Paul says about the devil here? Why is it important to remember that our actions affect others and the spiritual realm? Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to guard against giving a foothold?"

Friday | Review- Listen to the whole letter of Ephesians | Ephesians 1-6

As you listen, imagine you're sitting with a group of other Jesus followers - hearing this letter read aloud. How does listening this way emphasize the "we" in this letter? Summarize this letter in one sentence.
