The Way Out
The God Who Rescues
Exodus 2:1-25

Big Idea: God's rescue story is always ahead of the opposition.

What does that mean for a follower of Jesus today?

Remember that God hears your cries.

(Psalms 34 & 40)

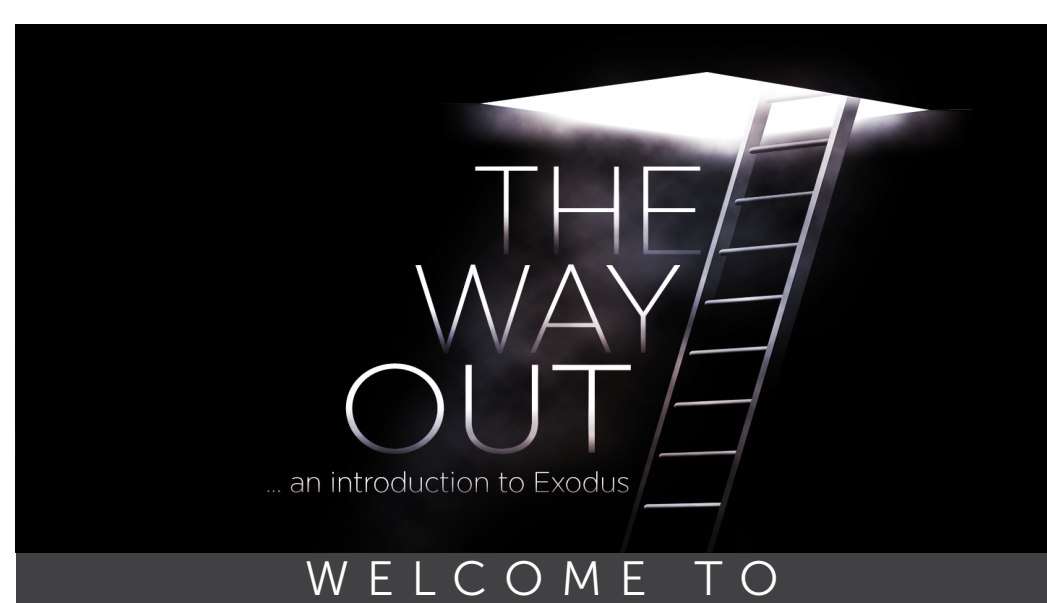

Live with your "eyes open" to God's work in and around you.

Celebrate even in the hard stuff.

(Romans 5:3-5)

 Before you read or listen to the story each day, ask Jesus, "What do you want me to see in your story today?" *****

Monday | Read Exodus 12:29-51

The final sign brings death to the firstborn of Egypt. How has this tension been building in the story? What is the contrast between the number of Israelites at the beginning of the story to the number presented now? Listen to the story again with what you know of Jesus and his crucifixion in mind. What stands out to you now?

Tuesday | Read Exodus 13

Listen to the story 3 times today. What are the children of Israel supposed to remember? What's the significance of "setting apart" the firstborn? Beginning in verse 17, what is being foreshadowed in the story? How does repetition help things stand out in the story?

Wednesday | Read Exodus 14-15

God is not done with Pharaoh yet. How does he prepare Moses for what is to come? Some attempt to moralize the Exodus into simply God being against slavery. What do you hear as you read/listen as God's primary motivation in this story? How does the song from chapter 15 help the Israelites remember what God has done?

Thursday | Read Exodus 16-17

What do you hear as God's motivation in giving "bread from heaven" to the Israelites? How do you continue to see God driving the story? What themes do you hear emerging from the story?

Friday | Watch "Torah Series Episode 3: Exodus 1-18"

This week's video reviews what we have already read in Exodus. What are 2-3 things in the story that have stuck with you so far? How has reading Exodus as a theological story helped you see God at work?

Join us for a time set aside for worship-based prayer as we pray our vision into reality.
