LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Monday | Read Mark 1:16-20

The "good news" transforms us as we follow Jesus. Mark's gospel gives very few details here - what do you think he's trying to focus our attention on? Jesus invited people to follow him - how has he invited you? What is it about Jesus that has led you to follow him? Ask Jesus, "Where is my next step in living "all-in" with you?"

Tuesday | Read Mark 2:13-17

Following is the call to be "all-in." What does it seem like these first disciples gave up to follow Jesus? What were they receiving? What have you had to give up to follow him? What still needs to be let go? Ask Jesus, "What are you inviting me to today?"

Wednesday | Read Mark 1:16-20

Following is an ongoing work in our lives. How would you describe what it means to follow Jesus? Who is someone you know who has been deeply changed as they followed Jesus? What are some ways - big or small - you can see that God has changed you as you've followed Jesus? Who can you share/celebrate this with? Ask Jesus, "What do you want me to remember about how you're working in me?"

Thursday | Read Mark 1:16-20

Following compels me to make followers. Why is it significant that Jesus included "fishers of men" in his initial call to his first disciples? Do you believe that Jesus is calling you to make other followers? What are some of your best excuses to avoid that calling? Where has God given you opportunities to obey that call in the past or present? Ask Jesus, "What do you want me to know about how you're working through me?"

Friday | Review - Mark 1:14-20

The "good news" transforms us as we follow Jesus. How is the call to "follow me" related to the good news that Jesus was preaching? How does this passage help you better understand what kind of king Jesus is or what his kingdom is like?
