Big Idea: The “good news” is lived out under authority if Jesus is our King.

We live under the authority of Jesus because he alone is worthy to be the king.

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

This week we encourage you to listen with an open journal or Bible. Write down your thoughts each time you read or hear a connection to the kingdom of God and Jesus' authority as king.

Monday | Listen to Mark 1-4

The "good news" is lived out under authority if Jesus is our king. Where do you see the authority of Jesus demonstrated? What does it look like to "submit to the authority" of Jesus in your life? How do you overcome your desire to assert yourself over the authority of Jesus? Ask Jesus, "Who needs to see the 'good news' of your rule in my life today?"

Tuesday | Listen to Mark 4-8:26

What does it mean to live under authority? How does this question challenge you? Who did you see submit to Jesus' authority, and who rejected it? How can you consciously submit to the authority of Jesus as a daily habit? Ask Jesus, "What area in my life do I hold back from your authority?"

Wednesday | Listen to Mark 8:27-10

How does Jesus define what it looks like to live under his authority by what he teaches? What is your natural reaction to Jesus' definition? What does it take to overcome your natural tendency to assert your personal authority? Ask Jesus, "What personal view do I need to trade away to live under your authority?"

Thursday | Listen to Mark 11-14

The "good news" is lived out under authority if Jesus is our king. How do you see this theme played out in the last week of Jesus' life? How does he demonstrate living under authority in his own life? Where do you still struggle with the idea of living under authority? Ask Jesus, "Who are you asking me to 'serve' today?"

Friday | Listen to Mark 15-16

We live under the authority of Jesus because he alone is worthy to be the king. How does Mark's description of the "coronation" of Jesus as king prove he is worthy to be our king? When we submit to the authority of Jesus, it's an act of worship. How can you connect your worship of Jesus with living under his authority?

What is your takeaway from this series? Move it from your head to your life. Live it out!
