Big Idea: The "good news" takes root as we press in.

We need to lean in to hear.

When we lean in, God gives more.

God is the one who grows his kingdom.

Next steps:

Monday | Read Mark 4:1-20

The "good news" takes root as we press in. When did someone plant a seed of the good news of Jesus in your life? How have you seen the "thorns" of v. 19 work against the word in your life? What do you think is the difference between those who produce fruit and those that don't? If that's true, what do you need to do?

Tuesday | Focus on Mark 4:10-20

We need to lean in to hear. What did the "insiders" do differently than the "outsiders" to learn the meaning of the parable? Have you ever had a season where you felt like you were learning a lot from Jesus day by day? What was that season like? How were you "leaning in?" Ask Jesus, "What can I do to lean in close to you today?"

Wednesday | Read Mark 4:21-25

When we lean in, God gives more. How do these words of Jesus reveal his purpose in teaching with parables? What does it look like to "pay attention to what you hear," as Jesus teaches here? What has been helpful for you in thinking more deeply about scripture - on your own and with others? How have you experienced the principle of v. 25? Ask Jesus, "Who can I encourage to lean into you today?"

Thursday | Read Mark 4:26-32

God is the one who grows his kingdom. What does the parable of the seed teach us about the power of the "good news"? What does the parable of the mustard seed reveal about God's kingdom? What are the implications of these truths for your hope? Your prayer life? Your boldness? Ask Jesus, "How should I live differently today because I know you're always working?"

Friday | Review Mark 4:1-34

The "good news" takes root as we press in. Why did Jesus "explain everything" to his disciples? How do we have an advantage today? Looking back over the passage, how does it shape your understanding of God's Kingdom? Of how Jesus works? How is this "good news" for you?
