

AUGUST 12/13 | SUPERNATURAL | DAVE GRUHN

Supernatural... a biblical worldview from Exodus
Yahweh's Salvation
Exodus 6:1-7:13

2RC.tv/LiveltOut

Big Idea: Jesus is the God of salvation to all who believe.

Yahweh's plan to bring "blessing" to all people is in motion.
(See Gen. 12:1-3)

Yet, past failure and adversity lead us to ask if that is true.

So, remember the supernatural world is just as real as the physical world.

Next Steps:

Grab ahold of Jesus's salvation!

Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to open my eyes to what is unseen?"

Ask Jesus, "What can I not get past to see you at work?"

Monday | Listen to Exodus 6:1-7:13

Jesus is the God of salvation to all who believe. How would you summarize God's intentions in this passage? How is your confidence in God impacted by what he's done in the past? Present circumstances? Future promises? Ask Jesus, "Who can I encourage with a reminder of your power and presence?"

Tuesday | Listen to Exodus 6:1-7:13 & Genesis 12:1-3

Yahweh's plan to bring "blessing" to everyone is in motion. God's blessing is living in the intimacy of peace, harmony, and safety with God. How do you see that in this passage? How have you experienced that in your own life? Ask Jesus, "How have I been blessed by you that I can worship you today?"

Wednesday | Focus on Psalm 13

Past failure and adversity lead us to ask ourselves and God tough questions. When have you felt anger or despair like David does here? Where do you tend to go to find relief? Is it hard to be this honest with God? Why or why not? Take a moment to talk honestly with God about what you're facing today, and use the words of Psalm 13 to guide your prayer. Ask Jesus, "What can I not 'get past' to see you at work?"

Thursday | Read Ephesians 6:10-23

Remember, the supernatural world is just as real as the physical world. In what ways have you experienced the supernatural aspect of God's creation? (If you have new life in Christ, there's one.) What would it mean to live "naturally supernatural"? How can you intentionally remind yourself today that there is more to the day than what you see? Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to open my eyes to what is unseen?"

Friday | Listen to Exodus 3:1-7:13

Jesus is the God of salvation to all who believe. As you reflect on the story thus far, finish this sentence: "Yahweh is a God who..." How should that understanding of God impact how you relate to Jesus today?
