It's all about relationships
Philemon 1-7

2RC.tv/LiveltOut

Big Idea: The life-transforming presence of Jesus is lived out in relationships.

Active prayer is a key relational foundation.

Partnering in "the good news of the kingdom of God" builds strong relationships.

Next Steps:

- Ask Jesus, "In what relationship do I need to focus on you being present?"
- Live It Out... a catalyst each day to follow Jesus

PRAYER REQUESTS

I HAVE DECIDED TO FOLLOW JESUS TODAY!

I'M INTERESTED IN BEING BAPTIZED!

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Monday | Listen to Philemon while you read it | Listen to "Nothing/ Something"
The life-transforming presence of Jesus is lived out in relationships. Focus on verses 1-7. How does this in-depth greeting reflect the nature of the relationship we have with other followers of Jesus? In what ways can we extend grace and peace to others? What are the barriers to extending grace in your relationships? How does holding back grace limit Jesus's power to transform relationships? Ask Jesus, "Who needs to hear that I love them today?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Colossians 1-2:5 | Listen to "The Passion"
Colossians was a letter written at the same time as Philemon and includes some of the same people. This letter builds a solid foundation for the identity of Jesus. Following Jesus begins with knowing Jesus. List three essential truths from this passage you can reflect on throughout today. Write them on a sticky note/small piece of paper and schedule at least three small breaks in your day to reflect on how these truths can impact your life daily. Worship as you start today!

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Colossians 2:6-4:6 | Listen to "Build My Life"
Following Jesus brings transformation over time. List three attributes that define what this transformation looks like. These attributes all require relationships to live them out. How might you "put on" one trait today? Ask Jesus, "Who needs to see this trait in me today?"

Thursday | Read Colossians 4:7-18 | Listen to "The Blessing"
We can fly right over the opening and closing greetings in N.T. letters. What do you observe about the nature of relationships in the early church? What do you learn about how Scripture emerged in the early church? The early church leaders were scattered across a region and still considered their relationships deep. How does this challenge your understanding of living relationally connected in the body of Christ? Ask Jesus, "Who is someone investing deeply in your people that I can encourage today?"

Friday | Listen to Philemon 1-7, 5 times | Listen to "This Is How I Thank The Lord"
The life-transforming presence of Jesus is lived out in relationships. Summarize this greeting in a sentence. How does expressing gratitude contribute to healthy relationships? What can you do to express gratitude for someone? How can this become a consistent habit instead of a one-time event? Ask Jesus, "Who needs to hear my gratitude for them today?"
