

OCT. 12/13 | IN THE WILDERNESS | DAVE GRUHN

*In The Wilderness... more than Numbers
"Rebellion"*

Numbers 13-14

THE BIG IDEA

Rebellion robs us of the flourishing life Jesus offers.

Doubt in God's goodness is the seed of rebellion.

Adversity tests our willingness to trust Jesus.

Jesus demonstrates the trust he desires.

Next Steps:

Ask Jesus, "What do you want me to know about your goodness?"

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Listen to this Week's Sermon
Live It Out Podcast- In The Wilderness: Wk 2

Monday | Read/Listen to Numbers 11-12 | Worship to "Desert Song" Rebellion robs us of the flourishing life that Jesus offers. Some of the Israelites' fears or complaints may seem understandable. Do you ever find God's call to trust to be too much? How have others been helpful or harmful when you've been in that place? Are there areas in your life where you're romanticizing the past instead of trusting Jesus for what he wants to provide? How can you realign those areas with the truth? Ask Jesus, "What do you want me to know about your goodness?" Write it out on a sticky note. Put it somewhere you'll see it this week.

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Numbers 13-14 | Worship to "The Lord Our God" Doubt in God's goodness is the seed of rebellion. The Israelites' fear led them to want to return to Egypt, believing it was better than trusting God in the unknown. How do you handle waiting on God in the unknown, especially when his response seems delayed or impossible? How do you tend to respond when those around you express fear or doubt? What strengthens your confidence in God in those times? Ask Jesus, "Who do you want me to pray for today?"

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Psalm 77 | Worship to "Another In The Fire" Adversity tests our willingness to trust Jesus. When have you felt like the psalmist, crying out to God in a time of deep distress? How did you respond when it felt like God was distant? What do you notice about the psalmist's response? How can you remind yourself of God's past faithfulness to combat doubt and stay rooted in the confidence that he is always good despite adversity in circumstances? Ask Jesus, "Where have I let adversity overcome your goodness?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to Luke 22:31-53 | Worship to "Same God" Jesus demonstrates the trust he desires. How did Jesus demonstrate trust in the Father throughout his ministry? Meditating on God's faithfulness in history is different than focusing on his faithfulness to you. How are both helpful? How do they impact you differently? Ask Jesus, "Who do I need to encourage today? How can I encourage them?"

Friday | Read/Listen to Numbers 16-17 | Worship to "Faithful To The End" Rebellion robs us of the flourishing life that Jesus offers. Rebellion moves to the leaders responsible for keeping the Tent of Meeting (the Levites). In what areas of your life are you tempted to question God's goodness or leadership, as Korah did with Moses and Aaron? How can you choose trust and surrender instead of letting doubt and discontentment take root? Korah's rebellion didn't just affect him but also those around him. How might your own resistance to God's direction impact others in your family, community, or church?
