

Leviticus... for the rest of us
"Foundations"

Leviticus 1-10

THE BIG IDEA

God's story unfolds his desire to dwell with us.

"How do we live now that God has moved in?"

Entry into Yahweh's Presence required an offering to draw near. (Ch. 1-7)

Drawing near required a consecrated intermediary and proper worship. (Ch. 8-10)

God accomplishes his desire to dwell with his people through Jesus and the indwelling Holy Spirit.

Next Steps:

Ask Jesus, "How do you want me to think of your indwelling presence differently?"
Live It Out... a daily discipleship guide

Glossary:

- Blood = the source of life
- "Atonement" = to purge or to wipe clean
- "Sin offering" = purification
- "Guilt offering" = restitution
- "Peace offering" = communion with God and other worshipers

Monday | Watch BibleProject video on Leviticus | Worship to "In Your Presence"
God's story unfolds his desire to dwell with us. How would you describe the basic message of Leviticus in a sentence or two? How does this contrast with the idea Leviticus is just an ancient priestly handbook? Ask Jesus, "How do you want me to think of your indwelling Presence differently?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Ex. 40:34-Lev. 1:17 | Worship to "Lord I Need You"
Entry into Yahweh's Presence required an offering to draw near. How does Moses' inability to enter the tent demonstrate the problem between God and Israel? The Israelites had to follow very specific instructions to draw near to God. How does this contrast with our new reality? How do you sometimes think of drawing near God on your own terms rather than trusting his provision? How does the contrast between the old and new grow your amazement in the Gospel? Ask Jesus, "How do you want me to think of your indwelling Presence differently?"

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Leviticus 8:30-10:7 | Worship to "Behold Him"
Drawing near required a consecrated intermediary and proper worship. The same power at the center of the Israelite's encampment now resides in you as a follower of Jesus. How does this inspire you to worship? Knowing Jesus allows you to draw near to God at any moment. Do you find yourself taking this for granted? What might help you keep a consistent sense of awe and wonder at our ability to worship God at any moment? Ask Jesus, "How do you want me to think of your indwelling Presence differently?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to John 14 | Worship to "Lord of Lords"
God accomplishes his desire to dwell with his people through Jesus and the indwelling Holy Spirit. In this passage, Jesus points his disciples to this truth. What is the tension between love and obedience? How does this reflect the sacrificial system? Ask Jesus, "How do you want me to think of your indwelling Presence differently?"

Friday | Read/Listen to John 1:1-18 | Worship to "Tabernacle"
God's story unfolds his desire to dwell with us. Read/listen to the passage a few times. Note that the verb "to dwell" in verse 14 means "to tabernacle." Write out a prayer of thanksgiving based on this passage. Pray for our students and leaders as they head to Fall Camp today.
