

Easter Eggs: Glimpses of Jesus | Week 2 | March 23, 2025

Scripture: Zechariah 12:10; John 19:34-37

Big Idea: Jesus' sacrificial death brings salvation to all who believe.

Questions for Connection (Offer these to help start the conversation)

1. What is something you are looking forward to in the future? For example, a vacation, concert, sporting event, etc. Why is the anticipation exciting?
2. What is the most selfless thing someone has done for you? (Besides Jesus 😊)

*Before entering the following section, pray that Jesus would lead the discussion.***

Read Zechariah 12:10 & John 19:34-37

1. Zechariah speaks of a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy. Where has receiving Jesus' sacrifice led you to respond with faith and repentance? Do others see this in you? Do you see it in others? Give examples.
2. Why is it essential that Jesus' death was not merely an accident but a fulfillment of the Scriptures? How does recognizing that Jesus' death was foretold influence your understanding of his mission? When we understand this more, what should our response be?
3. Sometimes, we choose to sacrifice for others, but that doesn't always mean we suffer. Jesus willingly chose to suffer for all. Where in your life have you felt called to sacrifice for someone? What motivated you to make that sacrifice? Have you or anyone you've known chosen to suffer?
4. What is something that has recently impacted you through Live It Out?
5. Spend a few moments in silent reflection, considering Jesus' sacrifice. What is Jesus stirring in your heart? Share what you've heard.
