Unshaken
Descend into Greatness

Matthew 20:17-21:22

THE BIG IDEA

I confront the world's upside-down values by serving others.

2RC.tv/LiveItOut

In God's kingdom...

Serving, not climbing, is the way up. (20:17-28)

Serving requires seeing the overlooked. (20:29-34)

But warning...

It's possible to look spiritual and live untransformed. (21:1-21)

Next Steps:
Ask Jesus, "Who is invisible in my world that you are asking me to see?"
Live It Out... a daily discipleship guide

☐ I HAVE DECIDED TO FOLLOW JESUS TODAY!

☐ I'M INTERESTED IN BEING BAPTIZED!

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Listen to this Week's Sermon
Live It Out Podcast- Unshaken: Week 2

Monday | Read/Listen to Matthew 20:17-21:22 | Worship to "Lead Me to the Cross"
I confront the world's upside-down values by serving others. What's the contrast between the path Jesus describes and what James and John's mom asks for them? What emotions or reactions rise in you when you hear Jesus predict his suffering and death? Where in your life are you tempted to chase recognition instead of offering quiet service? Ask Jesus, "Who's invisible in my world that you are asking me to serve today?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Matthew 20:17–28 | Worship to "Crowns Down"
In God's kingdom, serving, not climbing, is the way up. Listen or read the text multiple times. How does Jesus redefine greatness in contrast to the rulers of the Gentiles? Why do you think Jesus ties leadership to servanthood rather than authority? What is one specific way you can lead by choosing servanthood over status today, in your home, workplace, or community? Ask Jesus, "What does it look like to descend into greatness today?"

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Matthew 20:29-34 | Worship to "Available"
In God's kingdom, serving requires seeing the overlooked. Listen or read the text multiple times. What do you notice about how the crowd treats the blind men compared to how Jesus responds? What might it look like to "stop" like Jesus did, even when you're surrounded by noise and urgency? Who in your daily life might feel ignored, unseen, or silenced? How can you respond differently from your normal response this week? Ask Jesus, "Who's invisible in my world you are asking me to serve today?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to Matthew 21:1-22 | Worship to "Like Incense"
Warning, it's possible to look spiritual and live untransformed. The fig tree represented Israel, failing to bear fruit. Jesus' act warned against empty religion and pointed to the kingdom opening to others. Where might you be busy doing spiritual things but missing the call to personal transformation? What's the danger in spiritual activity? What act of service might move you from performance to transformation? Ask Jesus, "How are you asking me to serve in order to bear fruit?"

Friday | Read/Listen to Matthew 20:17-21:22 | Worship to "Send Me"
I confront the world's upside-down values by serving others. Looking back over this week, where do you see the contrast between the world's way and the way of Jesus most clearly? What moment from Jesus' actions or teachings challenged you the most? Why? Where is Jesus inviting you to serve more deeply, more humbly, or more personally in the coming week? Ask Jesus how he wants you to pray today.
