LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Listen to this Week's Sermon

Practice "surrender" each morning this week by sitting still for a minute and praying: "Jesus, my life belongs to you. Shape my words, my choices, my reactions, and my presence. Lead me in the good works you prepared for me today."

Monday | Read/Listen to Ephesians 2:1-10 | Worship to "I Thank God"
Jesus ignites transformation through people whose faith becomes visible. When you consider the contrast between who you were and who Jesus has made you, what word or phrase stands out and why? How does this encourage or challenge you? Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to show up today?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Titus 3:1-11 | Worship to "Washed"
Salvation is God's gift, not our achievement. When we remember the grace that rescued us, it changes how we show up in the world. What does this passage reveal about the kind of heart God has toward people who cannot change themselves? As you think about your own story, how does God's mercy shape your attitude toward the people you will see today? What kind of life does this passage push you toward as you step into a normal Tuesday? Ask Jesus, "Who needs to see my faith in action today?"

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Psalm 40 | Worship to "Graves Into Gardens"
Transformation is meant to be visible through us. Psalm 40 holds together rescue and response. As you take in the whole psalm, what moment in David's story feels closest to your own right now? Where might Jesus be inviting you to live your faith in a way people can see? How can your own honesty with God become part of the transformation he wants to work in you? Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to show up today?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to Colossians 3:1-17 | Worship to "Fruit Takes Time"
A transformed life takes shape in ordinary moments. Meditate on this passage. What part of the new life Paul describes feels most needed in your relationships right now? How could the word of Christ dwelling in you reshape the way you respond to the people around you? Ask Jesus, "Who needs to see my faith in action today?"

Friday | Read/Listen to Psalm 67 | Worship to "You Have Made Me Glad"
Jesus ignites transformation through people whose faith becomes visible. What line in this psalm gives you a clearer picture of the kind of life God wants to shape in you? How have you seen God's favor or kindness this week, and how might that become a witness to someone else? How could your attitude, words, or presence carry the blessing of God into one relationship today? Ask Jesus, "Where do I need to show up today?"
