Unshaken
An Unshakeable Promise

Matthew 26:1-30

THE BIG IDEA

We endure because Jesus secured an unshakeable promise.

What looks like chaos is actually the plan. (vv. 1-5)

What looks like waste is actually worship. (vv. 6-13)

What looks like belonging is actually a transaction. (vv. 14-25)
(See: Exodus 21:32; Zechariah 11:12–13)

What looks like an ending is actually the new beginning. (vv. 26-30)
(See: Exodus 12; Exodus 24:8; Leviticus 4 & 5; Isaiah 53:12; Jeremiah 31:33–34; Ezekiel 36:26–27; Psalms 113–118)

Next steps:
Live it out... focus on the relationship, not a transaction

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Listen to this Week's Sermon
Live It Out Podcast - Unshaken: Week 8

Monday | Read/Listen to Matthew 26:1-30 | Worship to "So Be It"
We endure because Jesus sealed an unshakeable promise. Notice the four contrasts Matthew draws out: What looks like chaos is actually the plan. What looks like waste is actually worship. What looks like belonging is actually a transaction. What looks like an ending is actually the new beginning. Which one struck you? Why that one? What is Jesus saying to you through it? Ask Jesus, "What are you showing me about yourself that I haven't seen before?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Exodus 24:1–11 | Worship to "You've Already Won"
What looks like chaos is actually the plan. This is the covenant scene Jesus was pointing to at the table. What happens after the blood is splattered? Why do the elders eat and drink in God's presence? Where in your life does the story not make sense right now? What would change if you trusted that Jesus is working toward something you can't see yet? Ask Jesus, "What are you doing that I can't see yet?"

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Jeremiah 31:31–37 | Worship to "Known By You"
What looks like waste is actually worship. What does God promise will be different about this covenant? What does it mean that it doesn't depend on your performance? The woman in Matthew 26 poured out everything without hesitating; what was she responding to that the disciples missed? Where have you been measuring your devotion to Jesus by what it costs instead of by who he is? What would it look like this week to give Jesus something that actually costs you? Ask Jesus, "What am I holding back from you?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to Isaiah 52:13–53:12 | Worship to "At The Cross"
What looks like belonging is actually a transaction. Who is the servant dying for? What kind of people does this passage describe? Judas had three years with Jesus and never moved past "Rabbi." The others called him "Lord." Which word honestly describes how you've been relating to Jesus lately? Where have you settled for being in the room instead of being surrendered? What's the difference between those two things in your daily life? Ask Jesus, "Am I surrendered to you, or am I just in the room?"

Friday | Read/Listen to Hosea 6:1–3 | Worship to "I Got Saved"
What looks like an ending is actually the new beginning. What stands out to you about the invitation in verse 1? What does "after two days" and "on the third day" stir in you after this week? Hosea was speaking to people who had turned their relationship with God into something transactional. What has Jesus been revealing to you this week about the difference between transaction and surrender? What's one thing you need to do about it? Ask Jesus, "What does it look like for me to live like someone whose future is already sealed?" Pray for families at our 2RC Kids Family Game Night tonight.
