Beyond the Seen

Matthew 27:27-66

THE BIG IDEA

What looks like defeat is actually Jesus accomplishing renewal.

Three Truths:

Jesus' resolve to the will and mission has accomplished our salvation.
(vv. 27-31)

The crucifixion exposed the bankruptcy of both religious and political power.
(vv. 32-44)

Creation itself testifies to the cosmic significance of Jesus' death.
(vv. 45-66)

The crucifixion requires a response. (vv. 54-66)

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Listen to this Week's Sermon
Live It Out Podcast - Unshaken: Week 12

The gospel writers don't always provide a strict day-by-day timeline, but this week's readings follow the traditional flow of Jesus' final week, as presented in Matthew's account. Walk with him through these final days and let the weight of each moment settle before moving to the next.

Monday | Read/Listen to Matthew 21:12-22 | Worship to "Help My Unbelief"
What looks like defeat is actually Jesus accomplishing renewal. What do Jesus' actions on this day reveal about what he really values? What do the temple cleansing and the fig tree have in common? Where in your life might things look alive on the outside but lack real fruit? What would it look like for Jesus to bring renewal there, rather than you managing appearances? Ask Jesus, "Where am I settling for the appearance of life with you instead of the real thing?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Matthew 21:23–23:39 | Worship to "Take the World"
Jesus' resolve to the will and mission has accomplished our salvation. The crucifixion exposed the bankruptcy of both religious and political power, and those cracks began to show. As you listen, notice how every group that tries to trap Jesus ends up exposed instead. Where do you see your own tendencies in these exchanges? Ask Jesus, "Where am I more interested in being right than being changed by you?

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Matthew 24:1–26:16 | Worship to "Jesus the Only"
What looks like defeat is actually Jesus accomplishing renewal. Jesus prepares his disciples for what's coming. Then a woman pours out everything for Jesus while Judas trades him away. Which response looks more like yours right now? Ask Jesus, "Am I pouring myself out for you, or holding back and calculating the cost?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to Matthew 26:17-56 | Worship to "Just As Good"
Jesus experienced real abandonment and death to accomplish our salvation. What stands out to you about how Jesus prays in Gethsemane? What is he honest about? What does he still choose? What are you resisting that the Father may be asking you to trust him with? Ask Jesus, "What does it look like for me to pray 'not my will but yours' right now?"

Friday | Read/Listen to Matthew 26:57–27:61 | Worship to "Blown Away"
What looks like defeat is actually Jesus accomplishing renewal. The crucifixion requires a response. What breaks down in this passage? What breaks open? Every human power structure fails, and yet something is being accomplished. Sit with this today and allow it to be heavy. Easter is coming, but enter into the tension between the crucifixion and resurrection. Ask Jesus, "What does your death reveal about the lengths you would go to rescue me?"
