RENEWAL THROUGH REST

Matthew 26:31-56

THE BIG IDEA

We experience renewal by depending on Jesus' faithfulness.

Human faithfulness is fragile and fails under pressure. (vv. 31–35)

Jesus' obedience leads to our renewal. (vv. 36-46)

The real fight is obedience, not self-protection. (vv. 47-56)

Next steps:
Turn and obey Jesus
Ask Jesus, "What's the next simple step of obedience you are asking me to take?"

LIVE IT OUT | A DAILY DISCIPLESHIP GUIDE

Listen to this Week's Sermon
Live It Out Podcast - Unshaken: Week 9

Mon | Read/Listen to Matt 26:31–56 | Worship to "God I'm Just Grateful"
We experience renewal by depending on Jesus' faithfulness. Where in your life have you confused intensity of feeling with actual faithfulness? What does it do to you to realize that Jesus already knew Peter would fail and still made plans to meet him on the other side? What does that tell you about how Jesus sees you? Ask Jesus, "Where am I overconfident in my own devotion to you?"

Tue | Read/Listen to Zechariah 12:10–13:9 | Worship to "Here Again"
Human faithfulness is fragile and fails under pressure. This is the passage Jesus quoted on the road to the garden. What does this add to your understanding of what Jesus was walking toward that night? Where in your life does God's work in you feel more like breaking than blessing? What would it look like to trust that he is the one doing it? When has your own overconfidence in following Jesus been exposed under pressure, and what did that reveal about where you were actually putting your trust? Ask Jesus, "What are you refining in me right now that I've been resisting?"

Wed | Read/Listen to Lamentations 3:19–33 | Worship to "At The Altar"
Consider fasting a meal today and using that time to pray. What does it mean that Jeremiah wrote these words from inside a city destroyed by war? Where in your own life do you need to return to the mercies that are new every morning? What would it look like today to surrender what feels broken to the faithfulness of God? As you pray, consider also the ongoing conflict in the Middle East and the people caught in the middle of it. Ask Jesus, "Who do you want me to specifically pray for today, and how do you want me to pray?"

Thursday | Read/Listen to Hebrews 12:1–11 | Worship to "Hosanna"
Jesus' obedience leads to our renewal. What does it mean that Jesus endured the cross for the joy set before him? What was that joy? What does the discipline described in verses 5–11 have in common with what Jesus modeled in the garden? Where in your life are you in a "oil press" moment, knowing what's right but not wanting to do it? What would it look like to tell Jesus exactly what you feel and then surrender to what he wills? Ask Jesus, "What obedience are you asking me to stop avoiding?"

Fri | Read/Listen to Matt 26:36–56 | Worship to "Not My Will/Yes Lord, Yes"
The real fight is obedience, not self-protection. Peter drew a sword to protect Jesus, and Jesus told him to put it away. Every disciple ran. Where have you been reaching for self-protection instead of obedience? What stood out to you most from this week in Matthew 26? What is Jesus renewing in you? Ask Jesus, "What's the next simple step of obedience you are asking me to take?"
