40... The Place Where Transformation Happens
Re-creation

Genesis 6-9

THE BIG IDEA

God's renewing work often begins with bringing old realities to an end.

God's divine judgment is to give the desires of the unrepentant heart.

God always provides a means of salvation from judgment.

A flood doesn't transform a heart; only Christ can.

Next Steps:

Ask Jesus, "What is one thing you want to 'end' in my heart, so you can begin something new?"

40 Days of Prayer: Over these forty days, we'll pray through four areas of transformation, spending ten days on each one. We begin by asking Jesus to bring transformation in us. Use each day's prayer prompt as a starting point, then leave space to listen and spend several minutes praying through what God brings to mind.

Monday | Read/Listen to Genesis 6:5-9:17 | Worship to "New Wine"

God's renewing work often begins with bringing old realities to an end. What is something you know is no longer producing life in you, but you've struggled to let go of? Noah had to trust God through an ending before he could see the new beginning on the other side. Where might God be asking you to trust him even though you cannot yet see what comes next? As you begin these forty days, what would it look like to give God permission to interrupt, remove, or reshape something in your life?

Prayer Prompt: Jesus, bring transformation in me. Begin with surrender and availability. Ask Jesus, "What is one thing you want to 'end' in my heart, so you can begin something new?"

Tuesday | Read/Listen to Romans 1:24-2:4 | Worship to "Psalm 51: White As Snow"

God's divine judgment is to give the desires of the unrepentant heart. Where are you tempted to excuse in yourself what you quickly notice in someone else? Is there a desire, attitude, or pattern you have been defending instead of bringing into the light? How might God's kindness be inviting you to repentance today?

Prayer Prompt: Search my heart. Invite Jesus to expose sin, resistance, wounds, and unhealthy patterns.

Wednesday | Read/Listen to Romans 5:6-11 | Worship to "From The Inside Out"

God always provides a means of salvation from judgment. Where are you still tempted to believe you need to fix yourself before coming honestly to Jesus? What does this passage show you about the kind of love God has for you? Where do you need to stop relying on your own effort and rest more fully in what Jesus has already done?

Prayer Prompt: Remind me of the truth of the Gospel. Pray from the reality of grace rather than earning or striving. All In Prayer Night is tonight. Join us!

Thursday | Read/Listen to John 3:1-20 | Worship to "More"

A flood doesn't transform a heart; only Christ can. Where are you most tempted to settle for changing your behavior instead of allowing Jesus to change your heart? What part of you feels hardest to imagine truly becoming new? Where do you need to trust the Holy Spirit to do what you cannot do for yourself?

Prayer Prompt: Make me new. Ask the Holy Spirit to transform you from the inside out. Ask Jesus, "What do you want to transform in me that I can't change on my own?"

Friday | Read/Listen to Genesis 8:6-9:17 | Worship to "Old For New"

God's renewing work often begins with bringing old realities to an end. Looking back over this week, what has Jesus been bringing to the surface in you? What is one way you want to respond to what he has shown you rather than simply move on from it?

Prayer Prompt: Fill me with your Spirit. Depend on the Spirit rather than your own strength.

Saturday | Read/Listen to Galatians 5:16-26 | Worship to "Wait On You"

Prayer Prompt: Make me more like Jesus. Pray for the fruit and character of Christ.

Sunday | Read/Listen to John 15:1-11 | Worship to "In Christ Alone"

Prayer Prompt: Deepen my love for Jesus. Pray against distracted or divided allegiance.
